

The Leeds Emergency Medicine Research Group (L-EMeRG)

Introduction

Welcome to the intranet site for the Leeds Emergency Medicine Research Group. The aims of the site are to inform you of:

- the strategy for research activities in Emergency Medicine (A&E Medicine) in Leeds.
- having an idea about what to research
- how to convert an idea into a protocol
- on-going research activities within Leeds and Yorkshire in Emergency Medicine
- access to an on-line submission form for research ideas from the Dept of Research & Development in the LTH.
- the L-EMeRG newsletters

You will also find it extremely useful to visit the FAEM website on research which has a host of other useful information.
